

TOUR PROSPECTUS

This prospectus sets out the contents of the tour and together with the Booking Conditions and Booking Form is the basis of our contract with you.

India – Rajasthan 11 - 26 November 2018 Tour 1865

This is a moving-on tour with full vehicle support and several rest days, making it a feasible tour for a wide range of cycling abilities. The accommodation is in good quality, character hotels, several of which were originally the homes of rich merchants or princes. Most of the cycling is on minor roads with light traffic, providing a unique opportunity not only to see the usual highlights of Rajasthan but also to experience rural life at close quarters.

The itinerary includes the Pushkar Mela, a dazzling annual Camel Fair that attracts the greatest concentration of nomadic tribes people to assemble anywhere in India, in which camels and cattle are traded. This is one of India's most exotic gatherings and a magnet to photographers from across the world. Visits to Jaipur, Jodhpur and Udaipur show a lifestyle unchanged for centuries.

TOUR MANAGER'S INFORMATION SHEET

The information below is given by the Tour Manager to help enquirers decide if the tour is suitable for them.

India – Rajasthan 11 - 26 November 2018 Tour 1865

The area covered by the Tour

Rajasthan, more than any other State in India, brings to life images of the exotic east. Palaces and forts are scattered like jewels across the mainly desert landscape, bearing silent witness to the once opulent lifestyle of the ruling classes. At the other end of the spectrum, you will be able to contrast the daily life of the rural communities for whom mere existence is a struggle. Whilst much of India rushes headlong into the age of technology, most of Rajasthan remains firmly rooted in the 18th century.

This most exotic of Indian states is often called the desert state. However, only 68% of its vast area is true desert. This tour is centred on the eastern side of Rajasthan and the Aravali Hills where the land is more fertile with green river valleys and even the occasional lake. Folk culture is very much alive and evident in the dress of the various tribal groups who add explosions of colour in defiance of their surroundings.

Rides and rest days

You may cycle at your own pace, taking time to explore and take photographs. The leader will co-ordinate the movements of the following vehicle to give priority to the slower riders in the group. Faster riders may go ahead if they wish. Plenty of time has been allowed for personal sightseeing.

There are no major hill climbs, and distances are moderate. Cycling conditions can occasionally be testing due to the poor condition of some of the minor roads we use, but you will benefit from the absence of heavy traffic. Individual use of the back up bus will be available, but at some time during the day it will be delivering luggage to the hotel and may not be available precisely when you need it. You will enjoy this holiday more if you prepare by riding on a regular basis during the weeks leading up to the tour.

Accommodation / Meals

Accommodation throughout the tour is of a high standard; in fact the hotels are a feature of the tour. Many of the hotels are listed as heritage buildings and were once owned by the ruling classes of Rajasthan. Some still are. The evening meals served at hotels will be buffet style with good choice for vegetarians. A light lunch will be provided on all cycling days.

Visas

It is necessary that all travellers to India obtain a tourist visa before departure from the UK. We will provide information on how to do this, but you will need to apply and obtain this yourself. Budget £60.

Group information

The maximum number of participants will be 18.

Weather and clothing

It should be warm and dry with daytime temperatures up to 28 degrees centigrade. Sun cream is strongly recommended. Head and eye protection are essential. A light windproof may be useful as it can be chilly early mornings and evenings. Modesty is expected in villages and when visiting religious sites. Ladies should cover their legs and shoulders when not cycling (a beach wrap is ideal as a quick cover up when stopping in villages) and avoid skimpy tops when cycling.

Cycles / Equipment

A lightweight mountain bike or touring bike will be suitable. It should be in good condition. Pay particular attention to wheels, tyres and brakes. We recommend 32mm (1½" tyres) minimum. It is advisable to fit a calibrated cycle computer, as this will aid navigation. Lights will not be necessary. Each participant will be expected to carry sufficient spares and tools to deal with punctures and minor repairs. Helmets are not mandatory but if you do not intend to wear one, please check that your travel insurance will cover you in the event of a claim.

Money

Sterling can be exchanged for Indian Rupees at Delhi airport. Daily drinks and snacks should cost no more than £10 per day (alcohol is more expensive than in the UK – Beer is £4 per bottle in upmarket hotels); budget £40 for crew tips. Tipping is very much part of the culture and is usually expected. It is customary to tip for small services (luggage, restaurants, bar etc). Please make an allowance for this when budgeting for your holiday.

Maps

We will be cycling on minor roads not normally shown on maps available in the UK. Maps and route sheets will be provided.

The 'Lonely Planet Guide to Rajasthan' is a useful source of information.

Travel Insurance

Make sure you have read Clause 7 in the Booking Conditions. Before booking you should check the Foreign Office 'Travel Advice by Country' at www.fco.gov.uk or on 0845 850 2829.
